

Sacred Moon Reflections A Lunar Year Course

With
Katherine Torres, Ph.D., D.D.

The Class, Sacred Moon Reflections, offers each student a way into Natural Rhythm, a connection with their own feminine qualities, and a look at the Divine Feminine Face of God.

Through the Earth-based religion of the Bards, Ovates, and Druids (for which Katherine is a Druidess) of Celtic England, the lunar wisdom emerges. Using the 13 moon cycles of a Lunar Year, a path is opened to Inner Empowerment and creative expression. It moves each individual into the pathway of New Thought and a Transpersonal Approach<sup>SM</sup> for living in the Dynamics of the rebirth of Humanity, while allowing the ending times of old patterns to ease their way out. Below is a minor synopsis of the Moon Mothers of the Celtic Wisdom that will be honored.

Within the cycles of a sacred law of “A Year and a Day,” we will honor a Year and a Month to bring about the power of commitment, mother wit, inner power and wholeness. It is well known in the wisdom of the Celts that it always takes a year and a day to accomplish understanding and wisdom of anything you are committed to. More on that as the class evolves.

Holly-Tine: This will be the initiation-time of the journey with this class. Holly is an energy of the Divine Feminine that calls us into alignment with Commitment. She encourages the vibration of honoring yourself, loving all, and abiding in your Highest Nature. Holly stirs the power of Approachability, Creativity, Gratitude, and being proud of who you are as a Light of Source. During Holly’s time the Cross-Quarter Festival of Lamas is celebrated/ The first harvest is noted. New Moon July 11, 2010 – Class date July 15, 2010

Hazel - Coll: The empowerment released from the Vibration of Hazel is Faith. Faith is uncovered by one’s willingness to journey within and discover the Sacred Truth of Oneness. Hazel releases the Answers to All questions. In fact, using the power of A Year and a Day, wisdom that evolves in the power of faith is also the power that turns dross into gold. New Moon Aug 10, 2010 – Class date Aug 12, 2010

Grapevine-Muin: The Quarter Festival, Fall Equinox, is honored during the time of Grapevine. The Harvest Moon romantic and erie. The initiation of endings occur. Allowing yourself to complete projects and put to rest what is simply extra activity is important. Also, learning the power of Endings that simply open the door to beginnings is a valuable lesson. Joining the elves, gnomes, and fey, this Moon Mother honors the past, the present and the future. New Moon Sept 8, 2010, Class Sept 9, 2010

Ivy - Gort: Still Movement is Ivy's message. The ability to sit back, observe, learn and then act is a major lesson. One learns the power of meditation through contemplation and allows wisdom to pour through. A secret of the cosmos can be revealed if you are dedicated to the power of Still Movement and allowing the Goddess to reveal Truth. New Moon Oct 7 - Class same day

Reed-Negtal: Power, Passion and the clearing of the deep unconscious is experienced with Reed. This Soul Protector will not allow you to escape from the Shadow so you may Live the Light you Truly are. Anger, frustrations, and obsessions will be cleared—and, you will feel as though you have no control to stop the process....why? Because you committed to know the Goddess...the true aspect of your Self. The Cross-Quarter Festival of Samhain is celebrated under the moon vibration of Reed. The complete darkness befalls the year. Fallow soul-soil begins to rest. Nov 6, 2010, Class– Nov 4, 2010

Elder-Ruis: A most sacred time occurs...after the storm. Sacred Silence. Elder calls for the time to heal on all levels and quiet your mind, your emotions, your body, and your ego, so you may hear the still small voice within. She guides you to the doorway of Winter Solstice. The oxymoron of Silence through Activity is met during the time of Hanukkah, Christmas, and New Years. Dec 5, 2010–Class Dec 2, 2010

Birch-Beth: Comes through the doorway of the Quarter Festival of Winter Solstice. The Light Returns and a new birth happens. Dreams of the future are stirring. All that is to be is Here and Now. Patience is required to allow the future to unfold. Creative imagination releases the power from withing. Dedication, determination, discipline and devotion help you maintain the matrix of your dreams. New Moon January 4, 2011, Class Jan 6th, 2011

Rowan - Luis: Alert, awake and deliberately focused, this energy of Rowan calls you to active awareness for planning your future. A good time to set your Treasure Board comes through this flow. Truth and determination will keep you in the flow of your intentions and dreams for the new year. Care must be taken so you do not betray yourself. The Quarter Festival of Imbolc is celebrated. New Moon Feb 3, 2011—Class the same day

Ash - Nion: The most Sacred Moon emerges, calling you to ritual, moving you into compassion, and helping you move away from illusion. The Great Mother rebirths within you. Her readiness to birth the New Life-New World is revealed from your Most Ancient Memory—the memory of Source. Her lunar time opens to the Festival of Spring Equinox. New Moon March 4th, 2011—Class March 3rd

Alder - Fearn: Active, go getter, stepping out in stride, Alder Moon Mother leaves nothing behind as she release the energy to head for your goal. The empowered state of Self Awareness releases courage, leadership and the Will to succeed. New Moon, April 3, 2011—Class March 31, 2011

Willow-Saille: The maiden dances in the light of the moon. Sensual energy emerges to help the growth of life. Unfoldment of desires is revealing itself....but so is the strength of illusion unless.....you find the magick from within. The mystery of transformation is visited again. The power of truth, the clarity of awareness, the blessings of love, and the willingness to act. Willow's time brings the Cross-Quarter Festival of Beltane. New Moon, May 3, 2011—Class May 5th

Hawthorn-Huathe: The Power of Discernment is explored here. Life carries many choices and the need to look at them and decide what works best is brought to the forefront with the Moon Mother. Her delightful energy releases joy, playfulness, and healing after transitions. She carries many mysteries and the need to recognize when good things have entered your life, even if the big desire has not yet shown up! New New Moon June 1, 2011—Class June 2nd

Oak - Duir: Ultimate compassion, the power to reveal and live your potentials, and the sacred wisdom of life exudes from this Moon cycle. Solidly based in the intent to birth your talents, Oak will help you deliver. Through her cycle, Summer Solstice is celebrated and the Power to Express All you are intended to express is brought to the forefront of your experiences. Will you live this empowered state, or keep it in the woods, hidden from the world? New Moon July 1, 2011–Class June 30th

