

Weekly Prayer Focus

Dear Lord, we sit in the comfort of our homes where we have space, and warmth and peace, and often don't want to know about the problems of others.

We put down the newspaper and turn off the television when we see uncomfortable facts we'd rather not know. Forgive our lack of care and help us understand the real problems of those who have no proper home of their own.. or no family to belong to.. or no friend to turn to.

Help us to move through understanding to action so that we shall continually look for ways by which we can help to bring about your kingdom on earth. Help us to use our time, our minds, our energies, our money, through work, through friendship and through community action...

Tea and Coffee Roster also Prayer points Roster

Are you interested and available to help on our tea and coffee roster or have you considered being involved with the prayer points roster? Please give these areas prayerful consideration. If you feel lead to contribute in either of these areas please speak to Sue or contact the office. Phillip
