

Weekly Prayer Focus

Monday

Lord, Thank you for family and friends and journey partners along the road of life and faith.

Tuesday

Who can I hear 'all the way through' today? Who needs to be heard and understood? Lord may ears be tuned to those in need.

Wednesday

God, I thank you for those who have taken the time to hear me – to sit with me in a time of need, and who have continued to love me by taking the time to understand, celebrate and mourn with me.

Thursday

God, how might I be more understanding and more sympathetic to those around me today? How can I more deeply empathise with those whom I come into contact with?

Friday

God, what is it I need to suspend or abandon, in order to offer greater love, care and understanding to those around me?

Saturday

Today, Lord, I wonder how I might be more encouraging? Who do I want to affirm and encourage for who they are, and what they contribute?

Sunday

We pray for continued strength on the journey – that we might continue to love those on our path, no matter what the weather.

Luke 7:36-50 A Sinful Woman Forgiveness

One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house and took his place at the table. And a woman in the city, who was a sinner, having learned that he was eating in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment. She stood behind him at his feet, weeping, and began to bathe his feet with her tears and to dry them with her hair. Then she continued kissing his feet and anointing them with the ointment. ...

'Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet, but she has bathed my feet with her tears and dried them with her hair. You gave me no kiss, but from the time I came in she has not stopped kissing my feet. You did not anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. Therefore, I tell you, her sins, which were many, have been forgiven; hence she has shown great love. But the one to whom little is forgiven, loves little.' Then he said to her, 'Your sins are forgiven.' But those who were at the table with him began to say among themselves, 'Who is this who even forgives sins?' And he said to the woman, 'Your faith has saved you; go in peace.'
