

THE DANCE OF LIFE

By John Randolph Price

DANCE: Rhythmical steps and motions.

LIFE: Livingness; living fully with vitality, spirit, zest.

Put them together, add music (harmony), and you have the DANCE OF LIFE.

You may love to dance—to swing, sway, twirl, and shake for the joy of it. But the key is to carry the feeling and flow into life itself. When you dance, the focus is narrowed to let your body, mind, and spirit become one with the rhythm of the music. And when you dance with life—to the universal beat of abundance, perfect health, creative self-expression, and loving relationships—you follow the same process. Let's look at these aspects of life.

FINANCIAL ALL-SUFFICIENCY

You can't get money. It's the other way around. Money is constantly striving to get you, to give of itself. But you put up a barrier by worrying about it. And money asks, "Why do you worry about me? You treat me like a lost little kid. But I'm just fine, Quit being anxious. Open your arms and receive me. Come on, let's dance together."

Money is happy, always smiling. It loves what it does, what it buys, and the pleasures it gives. After all, money is the energy of love in visible form. Its energy is feminine; its root is eternal goodness. In The Abundance Book I wrote: "By working with the rhythmic Energy of Self, whatever form that was needed for exchange was brought forth as an instrument of goodwill. As such, 'money' was simply a token of appreciation of one's service, a symbol of love and integrity."

The Source of energy-to-be-form is Mother Substance, the energy that appears as money. Bring her into your heart, into your feeling nature, and listen to her music. It's a love song. Dance with her as she sings to you, knowing that the energy flowing through your oneness will open every door to let money in. And as it does, and you begin to feel richer and richer, dance with the feeling.

Think on these thoughts:

There is always abundance everywhere, and I let it manifest in my life. I am open to receive. I cannot be limited, for I am the Spirit of Infinite Plenty. I am the Shining Sun of Supply, and God's wealth fills my world.

Catch the vibration. Hear the music of abundance. Move in step with it. When you dance in oneness with that energy, beliefs in lack and limitation—the only things that are limiting you—are transformed.

I invite you to dance with me, Allowing Prosperity to flow into your life and affairs. blessings of grace and abundance, Peggy

WHOLENESS OF BODY

When you dance to the beat of radiate well-being, you are honoring your perfection, your truth. You don't get health from what you eat or don't eat; you don't get sick from something "out there." There's nothing "out there" to cause anything. It's all consciousness, and your body is a reflection of what you are thinking. Nothing in the phenomenal world causes allergies, arthritis, asthma, cancer, diabetes, hemorrhoids, or warts. The energy from which all form comes forth, and that includes microscopic organisms, is neutral, harmless. There is no power in effects. It is the identity you are living—a limited concept of yourself—that misqualifies or alters the energy, and attracts these and other maladies.

Understand that on some level of consciousness, right at this moment, you know it is impossible to experience anything but perfection. You know that illness is a lie, because the Presence of God is as you now. Can God be diseased? No! And that song of wholeness is being played throughout your energy field, the truth etched permanently in your heart center. Listen. The melody is so beautiful. When you consciously dance with the truth of perfection, you transcend the experience of disease. When you get positively excited about you, for the law of life is one of correspondence.

Think these thoughts:

I see myself with a magnificently healthy body in perfect order, where every cell is in the image of the perfect pattern. I am whole and complete. I see myself as vibrant, energetic, and filled with a new zest for life. I feel wonderful.

Feel the rhythm of these thoughts and words. Become one with the vibration. Let it come forth as music, and let your body move with the melody. Dance with wholeness, and watch what happens to your physical system.

TRUE SUCCESS

Don't equate success with money. You'll always have money when you live what I call the Abundance Identity. What I'm talking about now is the creative activity of loving what you do, and doing what you love in a spirit of achievement and accomplishment. It may be as simple as growing flowers, or creating beauty in the home. You've got many more years to live on Planet Earth, so what are you going to do? Will you have success to dance with?

Right now, you are filled with success because you have the perfect pattern of success within you, an aura of magnificent creative accomplishment within your energy field. Open yourself to this energy of success. Let it come into your feeling nature. Feel the warmth, the vibration, and let the music play. Feel the movement of success in your body-sensation, and begin the dance.

Think on these thoughts:

I am enjoying the fullness of unlimited success, for I am the spirit of accomplishment, the force of achievement. Every activity of my life now reflects only victory, beauty, harmony. I live the Success Ideal.

Catch the vibration. Hear the music. And while you're dancing, think about what creative activity in life would give you the greatest pleasure, what you would truly love to do. Watch what happens.

LOVING RELATIONSHIPS

Isn't this what we all want? This urge is simply the pressing of Universal Law upon us, telling us that loving relationship—from the most intimate kind, all the way out to friendly, smiling strangers—is the natural process of life.

To ensure we would always live in love and harmony with people, we were given the perfect pattern of right relations. Bring this energy into your feeling nature, and pick up the vibration. Listen to the beautiful music. Hear the beat, and let it flow into your body.

Think on these thoughts:

Love is the greatest power in the universe, freely given to one and all. As I love others, I am loved. My harmonious thoughts are returned in kind. What I am feeling about another, I am feeling about myself. I choose to only feel peace and love toward all.

Move into that feeling, and sense its vibration. There's a beat there. Get into the flow. Through the dance, you become a mighty magnet for all right relations. It's amazing what happens when we truly enjoy the Dance of Life.
