

8 Rules for Smart Renters in Alberta

Watch the video @ www.youtube.com/cplealberta

1. Know Who You Are Living With Before You Move in Together

You will be spending a lot of time with the person you live with, so you should be able to trust each other. You also want to live with someone you can trust to pay rent, or you will be evicted. Sign a written roommate agreement before you move in together to prevent problems in the future.

2. Write it Down

Verbal agreements are hard to prove. You'll be more protected if you have a written lease. If you have a problem in your place, then you should tell your landlord in writing.

3. Go to Inspections with Your Landlord

The inspection reports are important because they are the evidence that lets the landlord make deductions from the security deposit when you move out.

4. Don't Pay Cash

If you pay with cash, you can't prove that you paid. If you use a cheque, you can prove that you paid. If you have to pay by cash, then take a friend with you to be your witness or prepare a receipt and have the landlord sign it.

5. Be Nice

You will have a better relationship with your landlord if you are nice.

You should NOT rely on this publication for legal advice.
It provides general information on Alberta Law only.

Watch the video @ www.youtube.com/cplealberta

6. Keep Papers and Notices

You should keep all of the paperwork somewhere safe. If there is a problem with your landlord, you will need all of the papers and notices to go to court.

7. Ask For Help if You Don't Understand

If you don't know what a notice means, you should ask someone for help so that you understand what you should do next.

8. Know Your Rights and the Law

By knowing your rights and the law, you can know if your landlord is doing something wrong.

For more information, visit:

Laws for Landlord & Tenants in Alberta: www.landlordandtenant.org

Service Alberta: www.servicealberta.ca or call 1-877-427-4088

© October 2018

Legal Resource Centre of Alberta Ltd., Edmonton, Alberta
Operating as: Centre for Public Legal Education Alberta

You should NOT rely on this publication for legal advice.
It provides general information on Alberta Law only.

This project was made possible through a grant from the Alberta Real Estate Foundation.